Supporting statement from candidate's nomination form

Hello. As an MBA and an LLB Law (Hons) LPC, I have the capabilities of understanding the current education policy, management, and financial planning. With the governors' board, I love to reach out to parents for successful - running the child's school with high aspirations for achieving the best possible outcomes.

Laxmi Hirani

Supporting statement from candidate's nomination form

"I would like to see how the school runs and be able to support improvements where necessary. My daughter attending the school, makes sure that the best interest of the school are at the forefront of my mind as I would want the school to be the best it can be to nurture my child."

Simone Budeanu

Supporting statement from candidate's nomination form

As a children's psychologist, I am aware that kindness and respect are the keys to achieve a proper emotional development for our children. Nevertheless, rules and policies should also be regarded as relevant requirements for our children's future nature. Hoping to be helpful and grateful for your vote, regards, Simone.
